

#1

2018 ULTIMATE WINE CHALLENGE

Fidel Amador (Amarone Style) Cabernet Sauvignon 2013 Cachapoal

90 Excellent,
Highly Recommended

Tasting Notes:

Pouring a bold garnet color with ruby highlights, this is a lovely cab with a nose of roasted cassis, dried thyme, and cracked black pepper. The palate shows more dark-toned fruit and savory, dry, earthy tannin.

#3

#2

Trotamundos Sauvignon Blanc Casablanca Valley (Chile)

Natural, Limited edition,
artisanal wine.

Tasting Notes:

On the palate, crisp, dry, with a delicate minerality. As the wine breathes notice subtle nuances of hidden flavors that will make this wine come alive. A clean refreshing finish!

Trotamundos Cabernet Sauvignon 2012 Maipo Valley (Chile)

90 Excellent,
Highly Recommended

Tasting Notes: 2017 ULTIMATE WINE CHALLENGE

Aromas are musky and deep with mixed berries, forest floor and green bell pepper notes. Juicy blackberries explode on the palate with tart and refreshing acidity. The earthy flavors fill in the finish intermingled with the smooth tannins that leave the palate feeling silky.

Trotamundos Riesling Casablanca Valley (Chile)

Natural, limited edition,
artisanal wine.

Tasting Notes:

Not too sweet, not too dry. Captivating aromas of peaches and tangerines. Bright citrus and melon flavors with a kiss of sweetness balanced by bright acidity. Perfect for sipping, with sushi, spicy dishes or strong cheeses. A delight!

Trotamundos Carménère Maipo Valley (Chile)

Natural, limited edition artisanal wine.

Tasting Notes:

Deep carmine color. Fresh black fruit and leather notes. Dry and full-bodied. Soft and ripe tannins with hints of chocolate, licorice and strawberry jam. Intense and persistent finish. The Carménère grape at its best!

2018 ULTIMATE WINE CHALLENGE

Trotamundos Pinot Noir 2013 Leyda (Chile)

89 Very Good,
Strong Recommendation

Tasting Notes:

Tantalizing aromas of cherries, rose hips, orange marmalade, and toasted rosemary. A touch of savory minerals gives way to fresh fruit and hints of spice on the palate with herbaceous notes shining through on the finish.